

PROSPECT HEIGHTS ASSOCIATION

Milford, Mass 01757 ♦ www.prospectheightsmayors.com

Mayor Frederick Crescenzi

1964–1965

Mr. Fred D. Crescenzi, 92, died peacefully Sunday, July 4, 2010 at the Franklin Skilled Nursing & Rehabilitation Center. He was married to his wife Helen (Hannigan) Crescenzi for sixty-three years. Mr. Crescenzi was the son of the late Antonio and Carmella (DiNardo) Crescenzi and the brother of Columbo Crescenzi of Milford MA, and the late Adam T. Crescenzi and Amelia Crescenzi. Mr. Crescenzi was a lifelong resident of Milford and had served in the US Army during WW II and was the recipient of a Purple Heart. He belonged to a number of veterans organizations, including the VFW and the DAV. He was also a founding member of the Prospect Heights Reunion Committee and one of its earlier Mayors. Mr. Crescenzi attended Milford public schools and was first employed as a painter for the Draper Corporation in Hopedale before being employed as a Milford Post Office mail carrier, retiring with thirty-three years of service. Along with his wife and brother, he is survived by his son: David Crescenzi and his wife Joanne of Milford; his daughter: Donna Marie Skidmore and her husband Robert, of Valrico FL; he leaves behind two grandsons: Adam David Crescenzi of Brooklyn NY and Joshua Thomas Crescenzi of Natick MA; also a nephew and two nieces.